RECORD

© 1973 The Genealogical Society of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, Inc.

Deseret Book Company, Salt Lake City, Utah

1. The first part of the document is a list of names and dates, which appears to be a record of some kind. The names are written in a cursive script, and the dates are in a more formal, printed style. The list is organized into columns, with names in the first column and dates in the second column.

2. The second part of the document is a series of horizontal lines, which appear to be a form or a template for recording information. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page.

3. The third part of the document is a series of vertical lines, which appear to be a form or a template for recording information. The lines are evenly spaced and run down the length of the page.

4. The fourth part of the document is a series of horizontal lines, which appear to be a form or a template for recording information. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page.

5. The fifth part of the document is a series of vertical lines, which appear to be a form or a template for recording information. The lines are evenly spaced and run down the length of the page.
